

Truck Camper
INSPECTION CHECKLIST
CamperFAQs.com

What to Bring

- Pen
- Inspection checklist
- Flashlight
- Screwdriver
- Tire pressure gauge
- Rag

Maintenance History

- Request maintenance records (if available)

Camper Exterior Checklist

- Roof - inspect seams and seals, and around units and vents
- Exterior walls - inspect for damage, tears, holes, cracks, delamination, etc.
- Windows and doors - check seals, open/close, leaks, screens
- Awnings - check material, open/close function, locking mechanism
- Slideouts/Pop-ups - if applicable, check seals and for proper function
- LP system - inspect tanks & connections, get a professional inspection
- Connections - coupling equipment, power connections, water tank fill, drains
- Underbody - inspect for damage
- Jacks - demount the camper and rest on the jacks, checking for stability

Camper Interior Checklist

- Electrical system - check breakers, test appliances, lights, outlets, battery bank
- Water damage and mold - check ceilings, walls, around toilet and shower
- Windows and doors - check latching/locking
- Heating and cooling system - Ensure proper function, check filters
- Plumbing system - inspect fixtures, tanks, water heater, pump, drains
- Appliances - ensure kitchen appliances work (gas & electric)
- Entertainment components - test TV, audio system, remote controls, etc.
- Safety devices - test LP gas, carbon monoxide, and smoke detectors
- Generator - ensure proper function, check fluid levels
- Everything else - cupboards, drawers, storage spaces, evidence of rodents, etc.

Questions to Ask

1. How many people previously owned the camper?
2. Do you have the title for the camper?
3. Do you have the previous maintenance records?
4. Has the camper been in any major accidents?
5. Where was the camper stored when not in use?
6. Is there any warranty left on the camper?
7. Can I extend the warranty?
8. How much does the camper weigh?
9. What is the size and weight of the camper?
10. Is it compatible with my truck?

Additional Notes

Visit CamperFAQs.com for more RV buying tips!